

PROPEL

A market-leading continuing professional development solution that meets the needs of the financial services industry in an environment of increasing standards and scrutiny

For more than 25 years DeakinCo. has operated as a premium brand in the financial services education sector and offers high quality programs backed by Deakin University. With an extensive network of subject matter experts, leading academics from Deakin University and strong industry links that assist in the production of professional development content, DeakinCo.'s reputation for delivering best practice learning is unequalled.

Expertise

- specialist in learning and development solutions that measurably enhance capability and performance
- financial services advisory group comprised of key industry figures

Content

- fresh, engaging and high quality
- learning content categorised as core, advanced and challenging to meet the needs of learners at various stages in their career
- technical, soft skills, practice management and ethics

Learner-centric

- flexibility and choice for the learner—traditional PDF format or interactive and engaging elearning modules
- responsive elearning programs accessible via multiple devices

Platform

- cloud-based platform
- role-based and individual training plans
- flexible reporting options at individual and group levels
- easy-to-access visual progress dashboards

Why DeakinCo.?

The complete CPD solution

- provides flexibility, choice and learner engagements

- has superior, vocation-oriented and relevant content

- meets the needs of licensees, employers and financial advisers

- measurably enhances financial advisers' vocational capability and performance

